
TRAINING RESOURCES - COVID-19

It is recommended that all businesses (including sole traders, private practices, and Ongoing Professional Development (OPD) providers) take all required steps to prevent the spread of COVID-19 as per the State directives and that the relevant Safety Plans are in place, and updated from time to time as restrictions change. Check out these links for training on infection control, and work practices to help you be COVID-safe.

Australian Government
Department of Health

The Australian Government Department of Health COVID-19 infection control online training is available for health care workers in all settings and covers the fundamentals of infection prevention and control.

The ACT Government - Skills Canberra provides free nationally accredited training to help local businesses be COVID safe. Through the ACT Government Business Hub you can develop or update your COVID Safe plan.

The NSW Department of Health has free 30-minute online training modules available to health care workers on infection protection and control for COVID-19. Through the NSW Government COVID Safe website you can also develop or update your COVID Safe plan.

TAFE NSW offers fee-free and discounted training courses and programs to help rebuild, re-skill, and upskill.

The NT Government have a range of free courses to give you practical skills for work including infection control and prevention. The NT Government also offer COVID Safe plans and guidelines.

Government of South Australia

The SA Government have resources to help you develop and update your COVID Safe and Management plans.

The QLD Government offer resources to develop or update your COVID Safe plan, as well as practical advice and information from trusted sources and partners to help you stay mentally and physically healthy and well.

WorkSafe QLD also offer work health and safety plan templates to record how you and your workers will stay safe at work during COVID-19.

TAFE QLD offers fee-free and discounted training courses and programs to help rebuild, re-skill, upskill, and support Queenslanders.

The VIC Government have resources to help you develop and update your COVID Safe and COVID Management plans, as well as advice and support for healthcare workers.

The VIC Government - Skills Gateway offers free infection control training to manage the ongoing risk of COVID-19 infections.

The WA Government offers resources to help you develop and update your COVID Safe and COVID Management plans, as well as business tools and information.

Fair Work Ombudsman offers workplace health and safety resources, online toolkits and mental health support services.

Safe Work Australia offers industry information and resources on cleaning, hygiene, risk assessments and physical distancing to help you stay safe at work.